WARDS AFFECTED: ALL

PURPOSE

1. To inform members of the progress in restructuring the Community Education and Development Service.

RECOMMENDATION (S)

2. Lifelong Learning and Social Inclusion Scrutiny Committee is recommended to note the progress made in the restructuring of the Community Education and Development Service.

BACKGROUND

3. Following a review, Executive Committee agreed in July 2001 to the service being restructured to take account of the Council's Modernising agenda, the introduction of Connexions and the need for improved performance.

REPORT

4. Attached is an update on progress to-date. Members will be provided verbally with additional information at the meeting.

PROPOSAL/OPTIONS

5. The restructuring option was determined by a decision of Executive Committee in July 2001.

FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS

6. These have been subject to ongoing work. All costs will be within existing budgets.

STAFFING IMPLICATIONS

7. These have been subject to ongoing consultation. With the exception of one post, which is currently out to advertisement, all senior posts are filled. All other staffing matters are either completed or well in hand.

CONSULTATION IMPLICATIONS

8. All appropriate groups have been properly consulted.
